

I support Net Neutrality in order to maintain free access and equality. I do not want my, or other citizen's, view of the internet world to be manipulated by commercial interests any more than they already are. I think this is vital to preserve our democracy.